Keep your favorite flavor cold longer — and your hands warmer — with this handy ice cream holder. The Soft and Stable-insulated case helps prevent freezer burn, too, and an optional see-through label may be added for easy identification. NOTE: The case is designed with a DOUBLE layer of Soft and Stable throughout to give extra insulation and protection.

Perfect for gifts and easy to make, the case is designed to fit comfortably around most pint-sized frozen desserts: ice cream, gelato, sorbet, or frozen yogurt.

Thanks to my sweet helper, Kaitlyn A., for inspiration for this project. Kati LOVES ice cream and her favorite is Ben & Jerry’s Half Baked. What’s yours?

Special thanks, too, to Kati’s grandma, Edna, for naming the pattern. When someone gets their “just deserts”, they are getting a punishment or reward that is considered to be what the recipient deserved. We all agree that, punishment or reward, ice cream is exactly what we deserve!

So, throw etiquette out the door, grab and spoon, and dig in!

Warm hands. Cold ice cream!

This handy Soft and Stable-insulated case holds the cold (and condensation) to keep your dessert cold and your hands warm and dry. Dig in!
B. Make and attach the base.
- Center and trace a 4” circle onto the right side of the one of the 5” x 5” pieces of main fabric, using Template A.
- Aligning all raw edges, layer the 5” x 5” pieces of main fabric and Soft and Stable in this order:
  - Main fabric, face down
  - Two pieces of Soft and Stable
  - Main fabric with traced circle, face up
- Stitch ¼” inside the marked line of the circle, stitching through all layers. See TIP at right if your machine doesn’t like sewing through all the layers.
- For easier cutting, stitch another line of stitching about ⅛” outside the marked line.
- Cut out the circle, cutting along the marked line.
- Finish the raw edges with a serger or overlock stitch, being careful to keep fabric flat against Soft and Stable on top and bottom.
- With right sides together, pin or clip the raw edges of the body of the ice cream case to the base. Stitch together, stitching with the base against the bed of the machine.
- Turn right side out, pushing out all edges.

C. Make the lid of the ice cream case.
- Center the 4½” x 14¾” piece of coordinating fabric on top of the 4½” x 13¾” piece of Soft and Stable, leaving ½” of fabric extending on each side of the Soft and Stable.
- Stitch ¼” from edge along the long top and bottom edges to join the fabric to the Soft and Stable.
- With right sides together, bring the short (4½”) ends of the piece together, making a 4½” x 7⁄8” piece. With raw edges aligned, stitch together with a ¼” seam, stitching ⅛” from edge of the Soft and Stable. Press seam open.
- With right sides out and Soft and Stable on inside, bring the long raw edges together, making a loop, about 2¼” tall x 13½” around. Clip or pin raw edges together to hold and stitch layers together, stitching about ⅛” from the edge.
- As directed in Step B above, but using Template B to make a 4½” circle, make and attach the circular top of the lid to the side of the lid using the 5” x 5” pieces of coordinating fabric and Soft and Stable.

D. Insert a pint of your favorite flavor into the case and enjoy.

E. Share an image of your Just Desserts so we can enjoy, too!

Thanks to Kati for the inspiration for this pattern. Kati LOVES ice cream; her favorite is Ben & Jerry's Half Baked. What's yours??
Greetings!

We hope that you will enjoy making this pattern from ByAnnie.com. Please be sure to let us know if we can answer any questions or help you in any way.

If you’re new to ByAnnie patterns, we’d like to introduce ourselves. ByAnnie.com was started in 2000 by quilter Annie Unrein as a way to pay for her fabric habit. Annie designed a website and started the business with all of three patterns. It was such a thrill to see an order come in and know that she could add a fat quarter to her stash!

Today ByAnnie.com has grown to a collection of hundreds of patterns supplemented by hardware, zippers, notions, and Annie’s own creation, ByAnnie’s Soft and Stable. Our staff works together to bring you quality products and friendly, professional customer service.

We would love to have you join us around the web. To find more patterns, notions, hardware, zippers, and ByAnnie’s Soft and Stable, visit us at www.ByAnnie.com.
